

SOLAR BREEZE INSTALLATION GUIDE

A technical reference to installing Solar Breeze attic fans for installers.

Version 1.1 -November 2011.

Local Standards

Installation must be completed in accordance with the requirements of AS/NZ 3500.4 “National Plumbing and Drainage code” as well as any relevant local standards and regulations.

Authorised Person (s)

- a) Installation must be completed by a qualified installer, who holds relevant licences or certificates for the work completed during the installation process.
- b) the term “authorised person (s) or “installer” used throughout this document refers to a suitably qualified professional.
- c) unless otherwise specified, no part of the solar breeze attic fan may be inspected, repaired or maintained by any body other than the authorised person(s).

Safety

- a) at all times installers must adhere to occupational health and safety guidelines.
- b) at all times installer is responsible for their own safety while completing installations.
- c) under no circumstances should any person, qualified or otherwise, attempt to install an solar breeze attic fan without reading and understanding this installation manual. For any queries Solar Breeze staff may be contacted on 1300 194 500.

Note:

Always wear safety glasses.

Always wear gloves when handling attic fans.

Take extreme care when working at heights. (use appropriate personal protective equipment (PPE)).